MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Defendant Ricardo Avalos Ramirez moves for the production of the following discovery. This motion applies to discovery of which the government attorney knows, or of which the government attorney may become aware through due diligence. See Fed. R. Crim. P.16.

1 (1) Immigration and Naturalization Service File No. A72-995-250, in the name
2 of Ricardo Avalos Ramirez.

3 (2) The Defendant's Statements. The defendant requests disclosure of all 4 copies of any written or recorded statements made by him; any written records 5 containing the substance of any oral statements made by the defendant and any 6 written summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten 7 notes of the government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings which may 8 have been given to the defendant; any response by the defendant to interrogatories;
9 as well as any other statements by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (A).

10 (3) Arrest Reports, Notes and Tapes. The defendant requests the 11 government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, any tapes, or TECS records that 12 relate to the circumstances alleged in the indictment. This request includes, but is 13 not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents
14 which contain statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material. Fed.
15 R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (A); Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The government 16 must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, 17 dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the 18 defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (B) and (C); Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(i).

19 (4) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of his 20 prior record. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (B).

21 (5) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized 22 as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)
23 (1) (C).

24 (6) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and 25 copy as well as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including 26 photographs, books, papers, documents, fingerprint analysis, vehicles, or copies of 27 portions thereof, which are material to the defense or intended for use in the 28

1 government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R.
2 Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (C).

3 (7) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant specifically requests 4 the preservation of all physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put 5 out of the possession, custody, or care of the government and which relates to the 6 charges alleged in the indictment. This request includes any tapes, or the 7 handwritten notes of the government agents taken while interviewing any witness, 8 the results of any fingerprint analysis, any audio and video surveillance tapes, the 9 defendant's personal effects, and any evidence seized from the defendant or any third 10 party.

11 (8) Reports of Examinations And Tests. The defendant requests copies of 12 any reports of physical and mental examinations and any scientific tests which are 13 material to the defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief. Fed. R.
14 Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (D).

15 (9) Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and 16 a written summary of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call 17 as an expert witness during its case-in-chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (a) (1) (E).

18 (10) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, 19 agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of 20 guilty, which affect the credibility of the government's case, or which may result in a 21 lower sentence under the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Under Brady, 22 impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence
23 favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States
24 v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

25 (11) Giglio Information. The defendant requests all statements and/or 26 promises, express or implied, made to any government witnesses in exchange for 27 their testimony in this case, and all other information which could arguably be used 28

1 for the impeachment of any government witnesses. Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
2 150 (1972).

3 (12) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of 4 trial of all material, including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce
5 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay
6 at the request of defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal 7 acknowledgment that “rough” notes constitute an accurate account of the witness’ 8 interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under 9 §3500(e) (1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United 10 States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991), the Ninth Circuit held that when an 11 agent goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are then 12 subject to the Jencks Act.

13 (13) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The defendant requests prior notice of 14 any crimes or bad acts that the government intends to introduce against him in its 15 case-in-chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) (1) (C); Fed. R. Evid. 404 (b) and 609 (b). The 16 defendant request such notice four weeks before trial in order to give the defense time 17 to investigate and prepare for trial.

18 III

19 LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

20 The defendant has not had access to some of the discovery, and the discovery 21 in this matter may be extremely extensive and complex. As such, additional 22 information has been requested and it is contemplated that upon receipt of the same,
23 further motions will have to be filed. Accordingly, defendant prays for leave to file 24 further motions should such motions be warranted.
